

Revolutionizing the Abortion Conversation:

A Giant Step Toward the Unity We Desperately Need

In January, a united Women's March for human rights was wrenched apart over the issue of abortion. Individuals and families are regularly wrenched apart as well. Why can't we have a conversation about abortion without becoming polarized? How can we also come to peace within ourselves?

Many people's lives have been personally touched by unwanted pregnancies and their results: Unwanted children; Aborted fetuses; Teenagers grappling with shame, stigma and fear; Adults struggling with a decision that could change their lives and the lives of their families.

Abortion is not a simple issue, so let's have a real, deep and compassionate conversation about it. Let's start on Saturday, April 8, 10 am – 1 pm, Pacific time, in person in multiple locations and anywhere via live videoconferencing. The program will be led by Beth Green, founder of TheInnerRevolution.Org, and all who come must commit to:

- Refuse to stigmatize one another
- Reveal our deepest pains, fears and motives
- Be honest with ourselves and one another
- Reach out to one another to find resolutions

Whatever "side" you think you're on regarding abortion, you are invited. But you must agree to one fundamental principle: That we are looking at this issue from an Inner Revolutionary perspective, where we recognize our Oneness, our Accountability and the importance of Mutual Support, where we consider the highest good of all – parents, child, family and society.

Are we ready for this conversation? Or will we forever be divided by anger, judgement and sometimes even violence? If you want to blame or shame others, please do not attend. But if you're ready for honesty and compassion, come to this event, listen, share and be part of the solution. We cannot continue to talk about unity without confronting the fetus in the living room.

This event is a fundraiser for the InnerRevolution.Org and we are asking for a minimum tax-deductible donation of $10 to support our work. No one will be turned away if unable to donate. To RSVP, or for location options, please contact Chris Reese at chris@theinnerrevolution.org or at (760) 505-4312.
