

Train Your Intuition with a Master!

A Ten-Week Series Led by Beth Green

10 Saturday Afternoon Online Trainings. Challenge Yourself & Help Revolutionize Our World!

If you want to see past your own stories and rationalizations, you need intuition.

If you want to help others see past theirs, you need intuition.

If you want to change society from the inside out, you need intuition.

If you want to responsibly use this powerful tool, train with a master.

Despite all our efforts, we and our world are still stuck in destructive and self-destructive patterns, some obvious, some not so obvious. We need intervention. In this training, you will receive intervention from Beth Green, a master of intuitively-guided counseling, and you will be trained to do the same for others.

An intuitively guided counselor since 1980, Beth's gifts are legendary. Born in 1945, her life has been devoted to building a better world, where connection trumps ego. From the age of 9, she was a social activist. In her mid-30s, she had a psychic and spiritual awakening which broadened her tools and deepened her understanding. Founder of TheInnerRevolution.Org, author of six books, original thinker, creative leader, host of a thrice-weekly live stream on Facebook, pianist, composer of four music CDs, inspired workshop leader, compassionate fellow traveler on the path of life and more, for 39 years Beth has successfully supported people to develop their intuition so that they may be of service to themselves and our world. In addition, she has trained lay and professional counselors to work faster, more accurately and more courageously.

If you want access to higher consciousness, see things from a broader perspective and have understanding beyond the ego's stories, this training is for you. It will be held from 2-5 pm Pacific time on consecutive Saturdays for 10 weeks, from April 20 to June 29. (May 4 there is no training, because Beth will be occupied leading a weekend retreat.) The training will be held live via videoconference, so anyone with an internet connection can join. People are also encouraged to do the training with others in small groups so that you can support one another. All groups and individuals will connect via internet, and we ask you to do the training in a place with a stable connection. Contact Beth with questions or if you would like to host a group at your home.

All Beth's work is intuitively-guided. Nevertheless, she will likely cover: What is intuition? * How do you use it? * What in YOU is blocking your intuition? * What in the OTHER person is blocking your intuition? * What to do about it? * Practice! * Be amazed. Starts April 20, 2019

Beth will be leading every session in person, and you will receive her hands-on attention. The entire series will cost $1200 if you register by March 23. Afterward, the cost is $1500. 50% refund available within one week of registration, except for registrations after April 5. Registrations are transferable. Click here to sign up.
